Successful Homecoming Lasts Whole Week

The atmosphere of the Homecoming week was filled with enthusiam. Monday started Homecoming week with 50's day and the Homecoming kick-off assembly. The Air Force Rock Band performed and the Homecoming Queens were announced when Rick Pereira asked for "the envelope, please!" The winners for the best dressed for 50's day were Cheryl Cox and David Guedry. Gary Wells also was honored by being named, "Limbo King." Tuesday brought out the best of the cowboys. The best dressed cowboy and cowgirl were Dave Jennings and Julie McIntosh with runners-up James Haley and Tera Kennedy. Wednesday, students had a chance to show their riding abilities by trouncing their way to the finish line on stick horses. At the picnic that night, seniors proved to all that they were good at something. They pushed a V.W. bug 50 yards to claim first place. Thursday, all who paid ten cents received a cup full of delicious frosty root beer to guzzle down in the least amount of time. With Friday ending the Homecoming activities, orange and black were prominent throughout the school. During Friday's assembly, Mark Tomlinson raced his way with his mighty steed to take first place, while Herman Crockett proved himself to be the best guzzler at Chaparral.

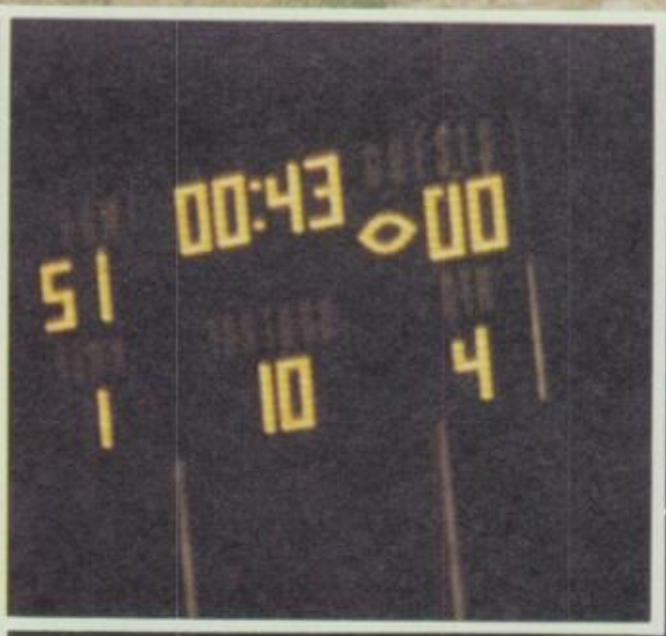
Friday night festivities began with the presentation of awards for bleacher and bug decoration and the class spirit award. The Sophomore Class won first place in bleacher decoration and first place for their baby buggy float. The Senior Class won first prize for their fine display of Senior Spirit.

Sylvia Eliakis was crowned Homecoming Queen with attendants Kelly Anderson, Cheri Cox, Janet Leavitt, and Anette Cameron. The football players were escorted onto the field for introduction by their parents.

Following the opening kickoff, the Cowboys continued to pile the score high and ended with a 51-0 victory over Eldorado and the privilege to keep Merlin's Cleat another year.

The Homecoming Dance was held the following night at the Marina Hotel Ballroom.



Sweden and Holland Send Student to Chaparra

"Sweden is the best place in the world (to me) but one thing is for sure, I'll miss this marvelous school and fantastic country very very much when I'm back there. Your school is stricter than mine, but you have a lot of fun at school. More fun than is a Swedish school with no clubs and no sports."

Nils Bjorkman

"To me, this high school year was a totally new experience. Lots of things, namely in our Dutch schools, are much different. Schools in Holland are purely for learning. The American schools pay much more attention to activities, I think that's very good; it gives the young people a wi education.

"All the teachers and pupils were very kind and helpfu me, and that is something I appreciate very, very much.

"Because we don't have things like that in Holland, class ring and especially the Yearbook will be certainly most beautiful souvenirs that I will take home."

Chaparral's Student Body is represented by the 12 members of the Executive Council and the Student Body Officers. This year there was a Leadership class, conducted by Mrs. Doris Moore, for the officers, council members and other student leaders. This class was to be used for planning activities for the Student Body. The Leadership class sponsored a Blood Drive on January 13. They also worked on getting all active clubs chartered and to construct a constitution. The school constitution was worked on by the Leadership class. After many corrections and additions the constitution was brought before the school for ratification.

Many other activities were planned and conducted by the Student Council, such as having the mural painted in the gym, pep assemblies, sponsoring the buses to go to the Dixie football game, Homecoming, Christmas Tree Decoration Contest, and the Computer Dance. The Council also presented each class with a contribution of $200.00 for class activities.

The objectives of the Student Council are to promote unity, spirit, and pride throughout the school.

The Army-Navy game has been a tradition at Chaparral for four years. This year the biggest and best Army-Navy game was presented to Chaparral students and anyone who wanted to attend. Some of the teachers got in on the activities. They included Mr. Allemen, Mr. Coffin, Mr. Perry, Mr. Lytle, Mr. Tomlinson, Commander Sheilds, Mr. Beckstead, and Mr. Gambarelli.

The opening shot, fired by Mr. Allemen and his cannon, was heard around the stadium. The U.S. Army then called out a tank to do battle with a Navy Cruiser. Mr. Gambarelli flew over in his bi-plane and a friend of his flew a Navy Monoplane. The two engaged in an aireal battle while on the ground the tank and Cruiser scored several hits on each other. The Navy Cruiser, down and in trouble, called out the Marine S.W.A.T. team to help. The fight was long but the Battle was tied to the very end.

Thanks to the National Guard, and a special thanks to the Marines S.W.A.T. team.

Black History Week is the one week in the year when America takes time out to honor Afro-Americans both living and dead. It is also a time when Afro-Americans take a few minutes to rejoice over their accomplishments and assess what is yet needed to be done.

To give Chaparral Staff members an idea of what they might be missing at dinner, Soul club members cooked up a Soul lunch and delivered it to those teachers who put in an order. All who participated enjoyed ribs, barbecued chicken, greens, corn bread, potato pie and potato salad.

To a special Senior Class
we say farewell with tears.
You are the very first of us
who's been here all four years.

You opened up this brand new school
the youngest of the rest
And then you made us proud and fine, we did become the best.

So as we say good-bye to you,
we say you've been much fun.
But even more important, Class
Thanks for all you've done.

English was an absolute necessity for all students no matter what their interests. They must communicate effectively to express ideas well, aid their freedom to work, and even to experience rewarding leisure time. The Library Aids Student in Research and Leisure

The Chaparral High School library is an integral part of the school; its objective is to support the curriculum of the school by providing the place and the materials with which students and faculty can discover, extend, analyze, and evaluate ideas, and locate factual information. The facility, its materials, and their arrangement are all provided in support of this goal.

In addition to helping students, the library works closely with the Audio Visual Department. The A.V. Department provides the library with filmstrips, films, and other various equipment.

The library contains approximately 13,500 volumes plus periodicals, pamphlets, and non-book media such as sound filmstrips, records, and tapes. Since Chaparral first opened the volumes of books has almost tripled, and in the years to come, the number will continue to increase.

We Are . . . The Cowboys

The Freshman and J.V. Cheerleaders have helped support our underclassmen teams. They have spent many after school hours perfecting their skills. Their spirited smiles and cheers have helped to make the games an event.

Hev Crowd! Yea!

Chaparral's Varsity Cheerleaders have been very successful in various competitions. While at a California cheerleading camp, the girls placed first in competition and won a spirit stick. They also placed first in U.N.L.V. competition and third at the J.C.'s state fair. To help improve the abilities of cheerleaders to come, the Cheerleaders held a summer clinic.

The Songleaders have worked hard to promote school spirit by appearing, performing, and supporting many events. They've made signs, raided locker rooms, decorated the football teams' houses, and sold ads for the Booster Club and State Basketball Program.

During the summer the Songleaders attended camp and brought home the Superior Trophy and the Spirit Stick. They practiced early every morning to ready themselves for the coming seasons. The Songleaders have a class hour in which they work on their routines. They are planning to enter the Youth Fair Competition and hold a Review in the spring.

Two new members were added to the group this year, Heide Miller and Becky Lea. They learned fast that Songleading was not all fun when they were put right to work at money making projects such as car washes, window washes and candy sales. The Songleaders also sold corsages for Homecoming, C.H.S. key chains, Valentine's Animals, and Spirit Tags.

Bench Babes on the Move

The Bench Babes are an organization that supports the football teams. This year the Bench Babes kept punch and water at all the games for the teams to drink. They also provided oranges for after the game. They took care of signing in and out equipment and washing the uniforms after each game.

Each Bench Babe had several players to do special things for. They decorated the locker room for every home game, gave the players Christmas presents, decorated their houses and gave them carnations for Homecoming.

The Bench Babes added life to the football assemblies by doing skits and holding the "Jock of the Year" contest. At the end of the season the Bench Babes threw a party to honor the football team.

Soccer Bunnies Hop to It!

The Soccer Bunnies accomplished many things this year. The money earned from car washes, candy sales, the bake sale, and fireworks booth went towards the Catalina trip which the Soccer Team and Bunnies went on in December. The Bunnies kept statistics during the soccer games scheduled from December through February including two night games. During the Southern Zone Soccer Tournament, held at Chaparral, the Bunnies worked in the concession stand in addition to their usual duties. The Soccer Bunnies' assistance showed results as the team did very well in competition. The Soccer Bunnies' advisor was Miss Roberts.

Pin Pals Aid Wrestlers in Their Success.

The Pin Pals' duties consisted of keeping statistics and scores at the wrestling matches, making signs for advertisement, and money-making projects such as a fireworks booth, candy sales, and car washes. This money was used for activities for wrestlers and pin pals including a "parent night" barbeque and a trip to California. Other activities were trips to the lake and picnics. The Pin Pals' advisor was Ms. Crabb.

"ZAH!!!" The team's spirit chant which they picked up in Santa Barbara where they were at a special camp learning and improving their soccer skills this summer. Four years ago, this team was said not to have reached their full potential, but after four years they have reached that goal with Chaparral's best record yet. Nils Bjorkman from Sweden and Steve Kahn from South Africa joined the team and were an asset to the team's victorious season. This year's team trip was to Catalina Island, California, where they played Toyon, a private school, winning 7-0. In addition to playing soccer for Chaparral, many of the players coached little league soccer teams for the first time. Night games were also a first this year complete with halftime entertainment. The consistently great coach, Coach Camillone, has shown the team the meaning of Pride, Spirit and Victory. The J.V. Soccer team, coached by Coach Baggett, went on to a victorious season, Their season record was 8-2-3. Through the cold and wind the J.V. players enriched their skills in hope of making the Varsity next year. One of the leading scorers for the J.V. team was Jay Italiano. The J.V. II Team, organized for the first time, has been given the advantage of gaining more experience and learning the skills of soccer early. This year's team has been coached by Emilio Camillone, and it has enabled more students than ever before to be involved in Chaparral Soccer.

The Theater Arts Department began a successfu with the major production of Ten Little Indians. The involved the classic situation of ten people being i under different circumstances to an island. The e ment begins after each is accused of committing murder in their past . . . The accusation is in the form voice from an unknown source while all ten are asser
in the sitting room of the house.

The cast, although for many this was their first production, did a fine, convincing job in portraying characters. The set, which was designed by Mr. Pau built by his technical theater class, had many sp effects that suggested the setting and atmosphere great detail. This and many other assets of the play a record setting attendance for Chaparral's fine department. The Theater Arts Dept. has reason t proud of this fine production.

Music Man Sets Record Attendance

"The Music Man," a play by Meredith Willson, was the most outstanding production ever put on by the Chaparral Drama Department. The musical, which proceeded a successful run of "Ten Little Indians," was highly acclaimed by local critics.

Many first-rate individual performances were spotted throughout the play although fine performances were given by everyone connected with the production. Ned Hill, who played Prof. Harold Hill, starred in the play and gave the best overall performance.

Also starring in the musical was Alane Fox, who played Marian the Librarian. She illuminated the play with her beautiful voice and ability to act. Other individual performances were given by Kevin Stein, J. Bradley Reese, Manny Canter, Traci Morrison, and Robby Watkins.

Exceptional musical arrangements were sprinkled throughout the production such as, "Trouble," "Seventy Six Trombones," "Wells Fargo Wagon," "Shipoopi," and the finale. The songs were arranged by Klark Black who was in charge of the vocals, and Marriner Beckstead who lead the instrumental section.

In coordination with the melodies, the complete stage did come alive with various dance arrangements choreographed by Kerrie Lynn Paul. The one person who was responsible, though, for the spectacular production was Len Paul, head of the Drama Department. He organized the whole play and produced it with expertise, paying attention to every little detail.

"The Music Man" was a truly brilliant production and we look forward to the Chaparral Drama Department's future production of the same caliber.

Varsity Chorus adds new Dimensions to Sound.

The Varsity chorus got off to a great start this year. They had a August picnic for all members and discussed uniforms. During the first part of the year they were busy with slave auctions which are an initiation of all new members, candy sales, parties, and concerts. The Cristmas concert was a special event. They sang the "Gloria" by Antonio Vivaldi and were acompanied by SUSC orchestra.

Mr. Klark Black, the chorus director, has led the chorus to many superior ratings in Clark county, California, and Utah.

N.J.R.O.T.C. Sees the World

The Naval Junior R.O.T.C. program was a part of the regular academic curriculum at Chaparral. In addition to the classroom instructions, field trips to military activities were scheduled throughout the year. During the 76-77 school year, some of the girls traveled to San Diego for a cruise aboard the aircraft carrier U.S.S. Constitution. A week was spent at the Naval Training Center in San Diego for the first year students to get a taste of Navy life. Carson City was invaded by the group for the N.J.R.O.T.C. drill team competition. Numerous one day trips and parades filled out the year. It all started in September when the N.J.R.O.T.C. students took up the task of being ushers at the Jerry Lewis Telethon for the third year.

Commander Shields was assisted in organizing the group by the Company Staff, who were Emma Neeland, Company Commander; Linda Creal, Executive Officer; L'Dean Walleen, Supply Officer; Ken Collins, Administrative Officer; Mike Thetford, Stores Officer; JoAnna Thompson, Public Affairs Officer; Margaret Helm, Senior Chief Petty Officer.

N.H.S. Is Community Minded

The National Honor Society is designed for those students who show the outstanding qualities of leadership, service scholarship, and character. Students must maintain a 3.8 grade point average before being recommended for N.H.S Students are rated for the above qualities by each of their teachers and the results are turned over to Chaparral's Schol arship Selection Committee. The committee thoroughly screens all applications and if more than one teacher gives "no" the application is rejected.

Chaparral's N.H.S. has more than doubled. It has its highest membership ever with 32 new members and a total o 52.

An initiation banquet was held at Hilda's to welcome all new members. A fine speech was made by Geri Lynn Gros san to stimulate the participation of the new members. The new members received membership certificates and a warm welcome to the N.HS.

Yearbook deadline nears

Feb. 28 is the day!

This is the final deadline for the Vaquero yearbook staff to submit material to the publisher.

"In addition to the 1,400 yearbooks already sold, there are about 300 books still available," said Ms. Mason, yearbook advisor. There will be no reordering this year, she added.

If a student wishes to purchase a yearbook now, this may be done at the school bank. The price is now $12.00. On yearbook Day, the price will go up to $15.00.

The staff is presently working on finishing up clubs, sports, performing arts and administrative sections.

Last year's staff sold 1,650 books.

There are yearbooks still available for the past three years, according to Mason.

BLOOD DRIVE LEADER--Junior Rick Pereira, leadership class member who headed the blood drive, donated one of the 98 pints.

Chaparral still No. 1 in enrollment

Regardless of a slight enrollment drop, approximately 50 students, Chaparral still has the highest enrollment in Clark County. At last count there were 2,881 students.

In September Chaparral had an enrollment of 2,933.

Through the past four months of school the usual withdrawls and dropouts reduce the number of students daily.

"At present the withdrawals and dropouts seem to outnumber new students, resulting in a decrease in enrollment," said Vickie Fisher, principal's secretary.

The Chaparral Express, the school newspaper, provided Chaparral during the 76-77 school year with many informative news stories, features, and editorials.

The staff, advised by Bill Russell, did their best to get out the paper monthly, although the size of the class had shrunk to seven members during the year.

The group learned many aspects of the journalism world throughout the year such as writing, proof reading, gridding, typing, and layout, in addition to studying different journalistic careers.

Gail Fitzgerald, who eventually became editor-in-chief, was instrumental in organizing the paper and putting it out on time.

Debate Club Stands on Issues

The students that participated in the Debate Club wrote all their own material for contests throughout the year. They competed in a debate at Manhatten Beach of California. They also planned a trip to Utah for the Abe Lincoln Speech Contest. During the school year, they took part in debate and speech contests at other schools in the Las Vegas area.

The Audio-Visual Department provided both the faculty and student body at Chaparral with varied audio-visual services, such as splicing broken film together and delivering and collecting audio-visual equipment to and from teachers. In addition to these tasks they produced a weekly news show covering the happenings and little known features of Chaparral.

Side Kicks Get Involved

The Human Relations Club works to bring people of different races and backgrounds together. Activities such as the retreat to Mount Charleston, a dinner for their favorite teachers and a Japanese dinner prepared by a member's father gave them a chance to experience different cultures. The Side Kicks are also planning to organize a welcoming committee for new students.

Chaparral High's Fishing Club, in addition to taking various fishing trips during the 76-77 school year volunteered their services to handicapped people.

The club took students from Variety School on a fishing trip to Lake Mead. The group enjoyed the trip very much, as did the fishing club.

The organization, advised by Mr. Kimak, also planned to take a group of blind people on one of their trips.

The record cold front in the East did nothing to help the ski conditions here. Ski trips were cancelled due to the lack of snow. Candy sales, car washes, and prayers did not bring the wanted and badly needed snow.

Junior Class Is Pride of '78'

The Junior Class Committee hoped to attain spirit and participation in their class. They yelled as loud as they could for the spirit stick, but never got it during football pep assemblies. During Junior Day of homecoming week, Dave Jennings won as best Cowboy. The committee held fund raising projects such as a candy sale and car washes. Their advisor, Mr. Collins, attended their once-a-week meetings and offered his assistance.

Sophomore Class Promotes Spirit

The Sophomore Class Committee began the year with their selling tactics to promote school spirit. Car window decals and orange Humphrey Flyer frisbees were sold. The Sophomore Class made themselves known on Tuesday of Homecoming Week by parading through the administrators' offices and the campus corridors chanting: "WE ARE THE SOPHOMORES." They also wore '79 armbands throughout the day. Sophomores gained recognition Homecoming Week by taking first place in the float competition with a baby bassinet following the theme "The Way We Were." They also won first place with stadium decorations for the football game. February 12 marked the date of the Sophomore Reverse Sweetheart Ball. Through their continued successes, the Sophomore Class showed leadership, pride, and overall enthusiasm in the promotion of school spirit.

OUR RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

Rights that we demand in life are not a gift but must be earned by fulfilling our obligations to mankind. Some of these obligations include the need to exercise the mind in order to have the right to examine life, the impetus to be active politically in order to have the right to disagree, and the duty to live magnanimously in order to have the right to expect generosity. Thoreau's philosophy expresses the obligation to "Love wisdom as to live, according to its dictates, a life of simplicity, independence, magnanimity, and trust." In order for us to "love wisdom," we must examine our lives by first exercising our minds. By thoroughly examining our lives, we can gain the freedom of thought that we think we deserve.

Freedom of thought is not only an obligation but it is also a right. Ancient Greeks arrived at the definition of an ideal citizen as being "the freely acting individual who could win everlasting fame by striving, and even sacrificing himself, for what for fundamentally mattered: the public good." The Greeks also used the word idiotes to refer to an uninvolved private citizen. Idiotes is the root word for our word, "idiot." Idiot means a silly or foolish person. Unless we are active politically, we do not have the privilege of disagreeing with existing conditions that make us unhappy.

Besides exercising the mind and being active politically, living magnanimously is another important obligation as a pre-requisite for attaining the rights that we usually expect from life. This idea is best illustrated in the following quotation by Rabbi Natan: "A man must love his fellow man and show him proper respect." The way in which to show proper respect to a fellow man is to be willing to give of material things as well as of ourselves.

Exercising the mind in order to have the right to examine life, being active politically in order to have the right to disagree, and living magnanimously in order to have the right to expect generosity are somB of the obilations required for and derived from achieving fullness of life. Ususally, the average citizen thinks only of the rights he expects and ignores the obligations that are required of him. Rights are earned, not given, and we must pay for these right. Aristotle states that "The good man is a working of the soul in the way of excellence in a complete life."

The Administration, Coaches and Vaquero Staff would like to give this special recognition to David Poplin, who for the last four years, has served as an athletic manager at Chaparral High.

As football manager, David has been the coaches' right-hand man. David has helped select the equipment that has been purchased, issued, checked in, repaired and painted the equipment. He has been responsible for setting up the audio system for each game, as well as maintaining its working order. He has also been very active in the production of the football program each year.

As wrestling manager, David has been invaluable to the coaches. The organization of uniforms, equipment, and check list systems has been David's duty as wrestling manager.

Aside from the usual manager jobs, David has been statistician for the Wrestling Team. He has kept both individual and team stats. David was head scorer at the Chaparral Invitational and is considered to be the best scorer in Las Vegas.

In the May 1976 issue of the National Wrestling Association's Scholastic Wrestling News, David Poplin was named NWA Manager-of-the-Year for the 1975-76 season. David has also been awarded a certificate for the program he worked on for the 76-77 season. The program was selected as an "Outstanding Wrestling Publication."

David, often referred to as "Pop," has been involved in other activities other than being a manager. He has been active in the Letterman's Club, A.V. Club and Spanish Club. David has also participated in the Sun Youth Forum and was a member of the Vaquero Staff, where he served as Sports Editor this year.

David is looking forward to a future in the athletic field, and is hoping to be either an athletic manager or to get trainer scholarship.

Mr. Smith, Chaparral's Activities Director, had these words to say about David, "He is the most capable, conscientious, and accurate manager I've come across in 25 years."

David, Good Luck and Best Wishes Always,
The Vaquero Staff
